

MEDIA/COMMUNICATIONS PANELISTS

Panel discussion sponsored by the Glen Rock Education Foundation

JOE DE BONIS — Coursework in Architecture, Lehigh University. Emmy Award-winning cameraman with 33 years of experience in television, film, music video, theater, and industrial, shooting everything from Saturday Night Live to the Super Bowl.

MINNIE ROH — Bachelor of Arts in Linguistics and Anthropology, Carleton University. MS from Columbia School of Journalism. 25 years of experience in broadcast journalism and TV production. Currently a TV reporter for CUNY TV's Asian American Life series.

NINA DIETRICH— Bachelor of Arts in French, Vassar College. Award-winning public relations strategist and business owner with 30 years' experience in business-to-business and consumer public relations and strategic marketing.

FRANK SCANDALE— Bachelor of Arts in Communications, Rowan University. Senior news executive with 20+ years combined experience as editor in chief at The Record in New Jersey during 9/11 era, and assistant managing editor at The Denver Post in Colorado during Columbine era.

HOWARD KAPILOFF — Bachelor of Arts in English, minor in Religion, University of Denver. MS from Columbia School of Journalism. 15 years as managing editor at Hedge Fund Alert, a trade weekly, with an extensive financial reporting background.

COLIN STEPHENSON — Bachelor of Science in Journalism, St. John's University. Newspaper reporter, with more than 20 years' experience working for well known New York metro area newspapers and covering every major professional sports team.

JEANNE KARDELL — Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice and Sociology, University of Scranton. JD from Rutgers School of Law. Internet Marketing professional and business owner with expertise in search engine optimization.

A.J. STORINGE — Bachelor of Science in TV/Radio, Ithaca College. Award-winning Advertising agency CEO, MetaVisionMedia, with 20+ years of experience for a diverse group of clients including Nestle, whose brands include Butterfinger, DiGiorno, Gerber, and Poland Springs.